

Annual American History Poster Contest

Bring American History Alive for your students by participating in the Annual American History Poster Contest sponsored by the Sons of the American Revolution.

This FREE program is offered as a public service to Teachers and Students. Members of the Sons of the American Revolution will come to your classroom to discuss the annual poster topic and contest.

2016 Theme: "Fort Ticonderoga's Cannons & the Henry Knox Trail"

The inspiring story of how Continental Army Colonel Henry Knox and his men transported cannons that had been captured at Fort Ticonderoga to the Continental Army camps outside Boston, Massachusetts during the winter of 1775-1776

Student posters are judged at the Local, State and National level and prizes are awarded in every classroom. To find out more or to schedule your class for a presentation, please contact:

Visit www.CaliforniaSAR.org for complete contest rules.

SAR members are descendants of a patriot who fought or assisted the cause of American Independence between 1774 and 1783. We help keep American history alive by sponsoring many youth programs and are actively involved in our community.
